B1 Vocabulary

Everyday phrasal verbs

Twelve common phrasal verbs for daily life, with examples you can reuse.

Phrasal verbs are verbs plus a small word such as up, out or on. The meaning often changes completely, so learn them with an example.

get up verb

to leave your bed after sleeping

I usually get up at seven.

look for verb

to try to find something

I'm looking for my phone.

find out verb

to discover information

Can you find out when the train leaves?

give up verb

to stop trying or stop a habit

He gave up smoking last year.

turn on / turn off verb

to start or stop a machine or light

Please turn off the lights.

pick up verb

to collect someone or something

I'll pick you up at the station.

run out of verb

to have none left

We've run out of milk.

look after verb

to take care of

She looks after her younger brother.

put on verb

to start wearing clothes

Put on your coat, it's cold.

set off verb

to start a journey

We set off early to avoid traffic.

come back verb

to return

When are you coming back?

fill in verb

to complete a form

Please fill in this form.

Practice

1. We need to buy petrol. We're about to ___ it.
2. Can you ___ my cat while I'm on holiday?
3. Don't ___! You're nearly there.

Teacher page: answers

Print the pages before this one for students.

Answers

1. run out of
2. look after
3. give up