B2 Writing

Writing an opinion essay

A four-paragraph plan and linking words for clear, persuasive essays.

An opinion essay states a clear view and supports it with reasons and examples. Examiners look for organisation, linking and a consistent position.

Four-paragraph plan

Paragraph	Content
1. Introduction	Rephrase the question and state your opinion.
2. First reason	Topic sentence, explanation, example.
3. Second reason	Topic sentence, explanation, example. Optionally mention and answer an opposing view.
4. Conclusion	Restate your opinion in new words and summarise the reasons.

Linking words

Function	Expressions
Giving opinion	In my view, / I strongly believe that / It seems to me that
Adding	Furthermore, / In addition, / What is more,
Contrasting	However, / Nevertheless, / Although / On the other hand,
Examples	For instance, / such as / A good example of this is
Concluding	To sum up, / All in all, / In conclusion,

Keep one position. You can mention the other side, but always explain why your view is stronger.

Practice

1. Join with a contrast word: Cars are convenient. They pollute the air.
2. Rewrite the opinion more formally: I think school uniforms are good.
3. Which paragraph should contain your restated opinion and summary?

Teacher page: answers

Print the pages before this one for students.

Answers

1. Cars are convenient. However, they pollute the air. / Although cars are convenient, they pollute the air.
2. In my view, school uniforms are beneficial.
3. The conclusion, paragraph 4.